This well-kept home offers a solid opportunity for first-time buyers or investors, complete with a secondary living space and a layout that has been thoughtfully maintained over the years. The upper level features two bedrooms and one full bathroom, including a spacious primary bedroom with two closets. The kitchen, dining, and living areas connect in an open, functional flow with great natural light throughout. The lower level includes one bedroom, one bathroom, a full kitchen, a comfortable living room, and excellent storage. Each level has its own kitchen and laundry, providing flexibility for shared living, extended family, or rental potential. The entry is designed for privacy: one exterior front door opens to an interior landing where each unit has its own private, secure entrance. Outside, the home sits on a large corner lot with a front deck, plus a three-car parking pad for convenient off-street parking. Updates have been completed over time, including shingles replaced in 2022. A smart, adaptable investment that works just as well for first time buyers looking to offset expenses, owner-occupiers & investors alike.
